SENECA COLLEGE—KING CAMPUS
KING CAMPUS GYMNASIUM, KING CITY

Boccia (pronounced BOCH-ə) is a sport for athletes with a disability. Similar to bocce, it is designed to be played by people with cerebral palsy and other locomotor disabilities affecting motor skills. It is a Paralympic sport, played in over forty countries

WE NEED YOU!

Need hours for school? Come volunteer at the event! We need people to fill score-keeping and officiating/lines roles.
